Winter retreats have proven to be a time of real spiritual enrichment as well as a great time of fellowship. You will have a good time, whether you are getting better acquainted with others from your own group or making new friends with people from across the state.

The Word of God is always the focal point of the retreat. You will appreciate time to meditate and reflect on what it says to you.

Here's a short list of what to bring...Plan to arrive Friday between 7 & 8:30 PM.

Plan to dress casual at camp. Remember to bring appropriate outdoor winter clothing as well. You will need a sleeping bag or sheets and blankets for a camp bunk, pillow, towel and washcloth, Bible, notebook, personal items, etc. Girls—please bring a one piece bathing suit.
